SEPTEMBER GIRLS - RESCHEDULED TO JANUARY 12, 2018

Songstress quintet to perform hits of the 1960s and 70s,
Broadway, Motown, and more

(Agawam, Mass.) The fourteenth season of the Agawam Cultural Council's Applause Series kicks off the new year on Friday, January 12, 2018 at the Agawam Senior Center. The September Girls will take the stage that evening at 7:00 PM for a concert of unforgettable songs from the 1960s and '70s.

The quintet will also perform medleys from Sister Act, My Best Friend's Wedding, and many other Motown, Broadway, Classical, and range of a capella selections. Members Kerri O'Connor, Jane Garabedian, Ellen Harris, Brenda Jermakian, and Karen Drumheller are talented musicians, music teachers, choir directors, soloists, Broadway Musical performers, and members of the Springfield Symphony Chorus, who all share a passionate love for music that will be evident to all who hear them.

The Agawam Senior Center is located at 954 Main Street in Agawam, Massachusetts and can be reached by phone at (413) 821-0604. This and all Applause Series events are free and open to the public. Venue doors open at 6:15 PM.

Additional information on each of the Applause Series events is available at the Agawam Cultural Council web site, www.agawamcc.org.

The Agawam Cultural Council is an all-volunteer local partner of the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency, and is funded, in part, by the MCC. The ACC is charged with bringing engaging, entertaining, and educational events and opportunities in the arts, humanities, and sciences, to children and adults from Agawam and the surrounding communities.
