The performance was to take place at the Agawam Senior Center at 7:00 pm.

Due to concerns for the safety of 'at risk' members of the community, the Agawam Senior Center has been temporarily closed, precluding this performance at this time. We hope to re-schedule it to a future date.

“GOOD MUSIC WITH A LOT OF HEART”

Jazz standards given new life with fresh arrangements

(Agawam, Mass.) The Agawam Cultural Council's popular Applause Series continues on Friday, April 3, 2020 when Too Human presents an evening of jazz standards from the Great American Songbook. The performance at the Agawam Senior Center will begin at 7:00 PM; doors open at 6:15 PM.

Led by Roger and Ellen Bruno, Too Human presents fresh arrangements of jazz classics with vocals, guitar, percussion, and upright bass in a performance that promises innovation, passion and humor. Ellen's earthy voice combines perfectly with Roger's unusual percussion style and stirring vocals. Sweet harmonies, unusual arrangements and Roger's famous mouth trombone are the musical elements that frame their performance. But what drives their work is their on-stage chemistry. High quality musicianship with humor and passion, totally in sync with each other, they create a strong and intimate atmosphere that will touch your spirit.

Production sponsor for Too Human is HP Hood. The Agawam Cultural Council also thanks the Agawam Special Police, Elaine Carlson, OMG, Inc, TD Bank, and Way Finders, Inc. for their generous support as Applause Series season sponsors.

The Agawam Senior Center is located at 954 Main Street in Agawam, Massachusetts and can be reached by phone at (413) 821-0604. This and all Applause Series events are free and open to the public.

Additional information on each of the Applause Series events is available at the Agawam Cultural Council web site, www.agawamcc.org.

The Agawam Cultural Council is an all-volunteer local partner of the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency, and is funded, in part, by the MCC. The ACC is charged with bringing engaging, entertaining, and educational events and opportunities in the arts, humanities, and sciences, to children and adults from Agawam and the surrounding communities.
