This dynamic quartet, consisting of Brad Alm and Jacques Hooten on guitars, Ann-Marie Messbauer on fiddle and mandolin, and Steve Saunders on harmonica and djembe, will perform folk-rock hits from the 1960's on up to today, along with their own lively arrangements of some great Irish tunes.

With everyone trading off on lead vocals and harmonies, Rising Tide offers up classic songs and lesser-known gems — with variety, freshness, and humor.
