Agawam COA Announces A Pilot Program to Provide Rides to The Agawam Cultural Council's Applause Series Events

From: Michael Squindo, LCSW
Director, Agawam COA / Agawam Senior Center

The Agawam Council on Aging has begun a pilot program to provide limited transportation to and from the Cultural Council's Applause Series events held at the Agawam Senior Center. This service is only being offered to seniors residing in Agawam and Feeding Hills.

Reservations are required, but there is no cost to you.

Ms. Lynn Cummings is the CoA's Transportation Coordinator. She is currently at the Senior Center on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Requests for this service should be made directly to her by calling her at: 413-726-2839.

Please be sure to mention if you are mobility impaired.

Space is limited. Reservations in excess of the 8 available spots can be placed on a waiting list if desired, as people have been known to cancel.

Seniors looking to use this service must be registered at the Senior Center. If they are not registered with the Agawam Senior Center at the time of their request, seniors can register on the phone with Lynn when they call to reserve a spot.

This is a pilot collaborative program between the ACC and the COA to help bring more cultural and social opportunities to members of the Agawam Community.
